Texidium Helps You Deliver to Students

Texidium by Kivuto® is the solution used by schools, publishers, and content owners around the world to connect students and educators with high-quality digital learning material.

What's Included

The Texidium includes two components to simplify and streamline the adoption, distribution, and use of eBooks in education.

Kivuto Cloud®

Kivuto's industry-leading platform for managing and distributing eBooks. Register student accounts, enforce eligibility restrictions, monitor adoption rates, and provide easy access to eBooks through an intuitive online portal. Kivuto Cloud does it all.

The Texidium Reader

Kivuto's full-featured eReader app built specifically for academic use. Empower your students to study smarter with features like highlighting, note sharing, text-to-speech and more, from anywhere and on any device.

Benefits

Flexibility
Offer eBooks in your format of choice and under any licensing and distribution model. This includes perpetual licenses, limited-time rentals, content subscriptions, and Kivuto's unique digital-library model.

Simplicity
Texidium delivers one of the most user-friendly experiences in the industry for students. It provides simple, centralized, self-serve access to eBooks and a consistent reading experience on any device.

Scalability
Texidium underpins some of the largest university and college library and bookstore implementations in the world. We offer multiple payment and delivery models and integrations to suit your institution.

Data Privacy and Accessibility
Texidium keeps user data secure and is built to comply with or exceed privacy and accessibility standards such as ISO, WCAG AA, PCI DSS, and more.

IP Protection
Texidium restricts eBook access to eligible users and protects the digital rights of content owners through AES encryption, copy/print restrictions, and other customizable safeguards.

Reporting and Insights
Schools, publishers, and content owners can actively track content adoption rates and other valuable data through detailed, on-demand reports.
